FOR YOUR EYES ONLY

The title is the mission of the actors of the show that, from 8th to 13th of April, will take place in the p8 apartment, in Milan: "For Your Eyes Only".

For your eyes only the location in via Palermo will become home, between dream and reality, between pieces of furniture, textile works, painting and video art. Thus Valentina Giovando, Elena Carozzi, Galleria Cardelli & Fontana and Karmachina, decided to present their poetical idea of a place to live, mixing art, history and craft technique.

Valentina Giovando's works, chandeliers and eclectic furnishings with a strong character, dot an experiential path through the house, where the visitor is called upon to interpret and interact with the visual suggestions that the artist wanted to show. Furniture becomes, in this context, evocative sculptures, catalyst identity of each eye.

From the collaboration between the two artists, Valentina Giovando and Elena Carozzi, is born "Bedroom" an original bedroom. "Parlour" is, however, the complete work, which the painter and decorator, Elena Carozzi, sets for the Fuorisalone 2014: a sweet blend of fabrics and paintings that takes the visitor into a dreamy and distant universe.

The Gallery Cardelli & Fontana presents a selection of paintings of geometric abstractionism that combines old masters and young talents, in a relationship between modernity and contemporaneity, as a counterpoint to the dreamy romanticism of the work of Valentina Giovando.

Totally dedicated to Valentina Giovando is the video installation proposed by Karmachina, which allows the visitor to enter the world and in the poetry of the artist.

The home becomes an environment full of dreams and ideas, because of the uniqueness of the handmade for a "unicum" that leads the visitor to discover a personal dimension in the preciousness of these elements.

The eye is solicited by the exposed works to the creation of an interior home that by using different artistic forms, combines modernity and uniqueness for a very personal and unrepeatable experience. The exhibition stretches through a walk in the various rooms of the house, inviting the visitor to live a new expression, which stems from the original choice of places.

The combination of different artistic craftsmanship allows the visitor to display a different pleasure of living the house as a private and friendly environment. The artistic choices mark the modularity of the taste and the possibility that everything can become unique and universal in the same space
