

Milan Design Week, 14th-19th April 2015 Preview of the Promemoria Collection

During the most important trade fair of the year, Promemoria will present its unique collection at the showroom in Via Bagutta. The care taken in the making of these furnishings together with the love for shapes and materials are the pillars that underpin the creativity of the designers and the skill of the craftsmen.

With the experience of four generations of carpenters and cabinetmakers, Romeo Sozzi has, through time, broadened the work of the original workshop in Valmadrera (where the company has its base). The furnishings have become ever more sophisticated in wood and in bronze, and more recently in stone, onyx, alabaster and marble.

It is precisely this, the expressive nature of marble that is explored in this small table, "Mediterranée, designed for Promemoria by Olivier Gagnère. A sculptured leg rests on a bronze base and supports a marble tabletop with rounded edges. The veins running through the marble top offer a natural and modern decor.
