Roberto Cavalli presents the exclusive “Optical-Animalier Limited Edition Collection”

During Fuorisalone 2019, Roberto Cavalli unveils the exclusive “Optical-Animalier Limited Edition Collection” at an event on the 11th of April 2019 at the flagship store in Via Montenapoleone, Milan.

The capsule collection revisits the brand’s iconic animal print design in black and white, celebrating the fashion house’s luxe and sophisticated - but equally bold and intriguing - spirit.

The boutique’s ground and first floors play host to grandiose styled spaces dedicated to the home collection, combining different patterns to communicate luxurious joie de vivre.

Celebrating the art of mixing and matching prints, finishes, and colours, Roberto Cavalli presents a selection of the brand’s most iconic pieces. This includes new incarnations of three timeless armchairs from the RC Home Interiors collection - Wings, Manhattan, and Sharpei – which feature the fashion house’s animal print in black and white.

The ceramic animal print Tableware collection captures the essence of the brand with its elegant patterns and wild vibes. This collection is produced and distributed by licensee Compagnia Italiana del Cristallo S.r.l. The vibrant but sophisticated offering is further enriched in a graphic modern key with a black and white zebra print and a mother of pearl giraffe print embellished with gold and platinum finishes.

The same combination of glamour and audacious luxury that characterises the homewares collection also returns for the Roberto Cavalli Home Linen line, produced and distributed by Caleffi.

The intimacy of the bedroom is draped in refined sensuality with soft, light devoré velvet or ton sur ton zebra print velvet bedspreads and pillows.

HOME

The charming animal print piping of the towelling products give a hint of the wild. In addition, the soft and cosy blankets are available in cashmere and velvet.

Refined taste and high-quality materials translate into a contemporary aesthetic for the Roberto Cavalli Wallpaper collection, produced by Industrie Emiliana Parati. The sophisticated animal print lends a unique character to each of the designs, and bestows a timeless elegance to the boutique's creative and original spaces.

Roberto Cavalli Group developed the collection to encourage us to embrace a new way of thinking about the home in a way that not only has strong visual impact, but is deeply involving in its joyful appeal.
