

MILAN DESIGN WEEK

EMERGING TALENTS

Presentation

Emerging Talents is one of the Milan's greatest and most international fashion platforms dedicated to talented designers. The aim is to support to create a professional network that leads to enlarging the sales or even reaching the very first sell-points.

Since 2016 the creative project has selected and promoted around 60 brands from more than 15 countries, to name some: Artuyt, eLSi Fashion, Don Alfo, FVCINA Luxury, Garnison, Karim Adduchi, Roberta Cenci etc.

We believe that the competition is gone. Now is time to collaborate and join forces together. Therefore we find group exhibitions to be one of the most important trends that give young brands a chance to be seen.

On April 13, Emerging Talents will present highly curated brands for the Milan Design Week. The event targets local and international fashion professionals, thousands of design lovers and enthusiasts, that travel to Milan to source and find new designers and products.

The 11th edition will be held in partnership with La Botanica Magazine, Spy News Magazine, TAERUS PR, Fashion Week Online